LIBRARY NEWS

DEAR PATRONS,

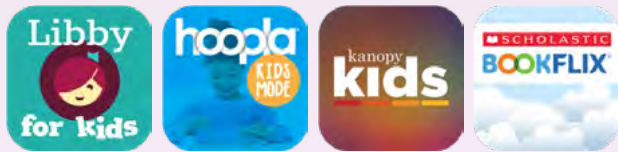

As we welcome the fall season, I am thrilled to share some exciting updates that will enhance your library experience.

INTRODUCING AUTO RENEWALS!

We are excited to announce the launch of auto renewals. This new feature allows eligible items you borrow to automatically renew up to two times, as long as there are no holds on them. This convenient service helps you avoid the stress of due dates and overdue items, giving you more time to enjoy your materials without any extra effort. More details at rmlib.org/renew.

YOUTH SERVICES IS GETTING A NEW LOOK

This fall Youth Services is getting a refreshed look, starting with new carpet. While the Youth area is under construction, we encourage you to take advantage of some of our online resources. Follow us on Facebook for upcoming dates.

ROLLING OUT AN UPDATED CATALOG

We are proud to introduce our updated catalog system, Vega, designed to help you locate materials inside the library, at home, or on the go. With Vega you will find an easy-to-use interface with excellent account features and new visuals, making our collections even more accessible.

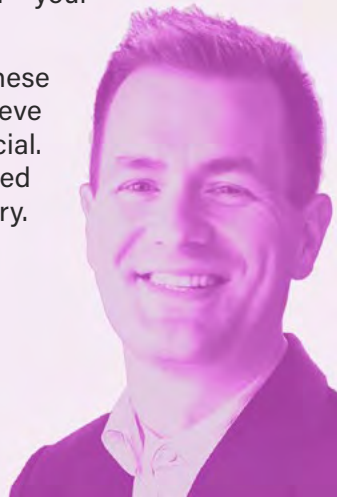

To ensure a smooth transition, the classic version is still available for use. As always, we are dedicated to continuously improving our catalog based on your feedback.

We are excited about these improvements and believe they will be very beneficial. Thank you for your continued engagement with the library.

BEST REGARDS,

Jack Bower

Library Director,

ARTS ALIVE concerts

Mariachi Mexico Vivo

S Sunday, September 15 | 2:00-3:00 p.m.

Join us in ushering in National Hispanic Heritage Month with an authentic mariachi band. Mariachi is a traditional Mexican folk genre that's a fundamental part of Mexican culture, characterized by a blend of string and wind instruments, a unique singing style, and a blend of harmony, melody, and rhythm. Mariachi Mexico Vivo emerged in 2005 in the heart of the Mexican-American community in Chicago. Led by Enrique and Karen Leon, the group is composed of seven musicians with more than ten years of experience. Come prepared to be entertained by their beautiful voices and instruments.

Rock and Roll Road Show

S Sunday, October 13 | 2:00-3:00 p.m.

Randy Walker performs some favorite rock and roll classics. Randy grew up in a musical family where he began singing and playing instruments at age eleven. His parents sang in barbershop choruses and he developed an ear for music. He performed with bands in high school and college, then moved to the Chicago area in 1981. Later he joined a local church and served on their worship team. He formed the band One2Many where he played for five years and then performed with The Incognitos. As a solo entertainer, Randy has a repertoire of over 1,000 songs and performs in over 300 shows per year.

The Military and Music

S Sunday, November 24 | 2:00-3:00 p.m.

Jazz Spectrum has created a Veteran's Day tribute concert you won't want to miss. Find out how the military affected our musical tastes, and how our music affected the military, from the Civil War to Vietnam. This show includes some special sing-along tunes, too. The vocal quartet is backed by a swinging rhythm section and horn players. They are extremely entertaining and enthusiastic and their natural talent shines through the vocal harmonies and amazing arrangements. They have been compared to The Manhattan Transfer. The group's trademark has been ballads with rich harmonies, foot stompin' doo wop and 'good-time' rock n' roll, all now with a military connection.
